

Emily Thorne

Emily started her career in construction as a laborer for her mother's heavy highway contracting firm, Midwest Construction. Within 2 years she was managing projects as a Superintendent on MoDOT projects.

While working for Midwest, Emily started schooling for Paralegal Studies & obtained her Associates for Legal Studies from St. Louis Community College. After that, she went onto managing all aspects of the contracting process with Midwest for around 8 years before becoming a Preconstruction Administrator at Clayco.

She has been at Tarlton as a Contract Administrator for 3 years now & has developed a passion for the construction industry as a whole.
