

Kaylee Cannon serves as a field engineer and project manager in Terracon's St. Louis, Missouri office. She is a geotechnical engineer that primary manages geotechnical engineering projects and preparing geotechnical engineering reports. She has worked on projects in Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Wisconsin, Ohio, Michigan, North Dakota, and New Mexico. Kaylee graduated with a B.S. degree in Geological Engineering from Missouri University of Science & Technology. Kaylee is currently serving as secretary for the Greater St. Louis NAWIC Chapter #38, and is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

