

Katrina Scott

Katrina Scott is a wife, mother, mentor, Diversity and Inclusion Leader, advocate for inclusion, and promoter of stepping outside your bubble. She has more than 20 years of management experience in supply chain diversity, pharmaceutical distribution, procurement, healthcare, compliance, and process improvement.

She is active in her community and is the Board Chair for Infant Loss Resources, Inc. She is also a member of the National Minority Supplier Development Council Healthcare Industry Group and the St. Louis Organization Development Network Program Committee. Katrina previously served as co-chair of the St. Louis Minority Business Council Board of Managers. She holds a bachelor's degree in business and a master's in business administration from Lindenwood University.

Additionally, she was born in Chicago and is a proud Chicago Cubs fan. During her free time, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, traveling, reading, volunteering, mentoring youth, and coordinating events.

Check all that apply. If a topic doesn't apply to you, skip it	White/Caucasian	Black/African American	Latino/Hispanic American	Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander	Asian/Indian	Native American/Alaskan Native	LGBTQIA	Heterosexual	Native English Speaker	English is my/their 2nd language	Other (write in as needed below)
I am....
The person who has had the greatest impact on my life is...
Most of my coworkers are...
The people who live in my home are...
My immediate neighbors are...
My best friend is...
Most people in my immediate personal community are...
Most of my childhood teachers were...
Most of my adult mentors/coaches have been...
My dentist is...
My doctor is...
Most people I worship with are...
My favorite singer/group is...
The characters on my favorite TV show are...
In the last movie I saw most of the characters were...

