

MIDWEST REGION NAWIC
Professional Development and Education
2022-2023 GUIDELINES AND NOMINATION FORM

This award will be given at the regional Forum of the Midwest Region. The award recognizes NAWIC Members / Chapters who have been actively involved throughout the past year and has exemplified the spirit and purpose of NAWIC. All nominees must be members in good standing and members of the Midwest Region.

Nominations must be received by Jennifer Harris CIT, CDT, CBT, CIS; Regional PD&E Chair on or before April 1, 2023. Nominations may be e-mailed to jennifer.harris@jedunn.com.

All nominations will be edited to erase any references as to the identity of the nominee and forwarded to a panel of judges as selected by the Chairperson. Judges are to be impartial and may include NAWIC members.

---

NOMINATION FORM

The following member/chapter _____ have been nominated for consideration PD&E Midwest Region Award.

I certify that the information contained in the attached application is true to the best of my knowledge and the nominee is a member in good standing of the Midwest Region NAWIC.

_____
Signed

_____
Date

_____ I certify that the name printed above acts as my signature.

NOMINEE # _____

---

Midwest REGION

---

Provide PD&E event details from October 2022. Report ideas can include calendars, marketing efforts, member attendance, guest attendance and feedback. Supporting visuals such as links to more information, shared power points, and photos are welcome. Future scheduled events through September 2023 can also be mentioned.

**Extra points for including this year's National PD&E theme of: *Many Paths One Mission